

JAN UNDERWOOD/DAYTON DAILY NEWS

Taft on high-tech tour

Gov. Bob Taft is shown a camera and monitor from a micro-optic infrared imaging system being developed at the University of Dayton. He was in town last week to announce $4 million in awards to research and development projects. The system is being explained by UD professor Andrew Sarangan and Jeffery Voelker of CMC Electronics.